Building Capacity for Teacher Leadership-Teachers as School Leaders and Coaches

Audience: teachers, administrators, coaches, instructional specialists

Laurie McCullough

Featured Presenter: Dr. Laurie McCullough

Assistant Superintendent, Waynesboro City Schools;
VASCD Curriculum Leader of the Year 2008

This workshop is intended for teachers in leadership roles. The day will focus on helping these teachers develop the skills necessary to serve as effective instructional leaders for colleagues. The session is appropriate for instructional coaches, department chairs, team leaders, mentors, and also for administrators who wish to enhance their coaching skills. Communication and coaching will be the primary focus areas. The session will also address the most important aspects of leading change, such as goal definition, building consensus, managing decision-making, and measuring and celebrating progress.
